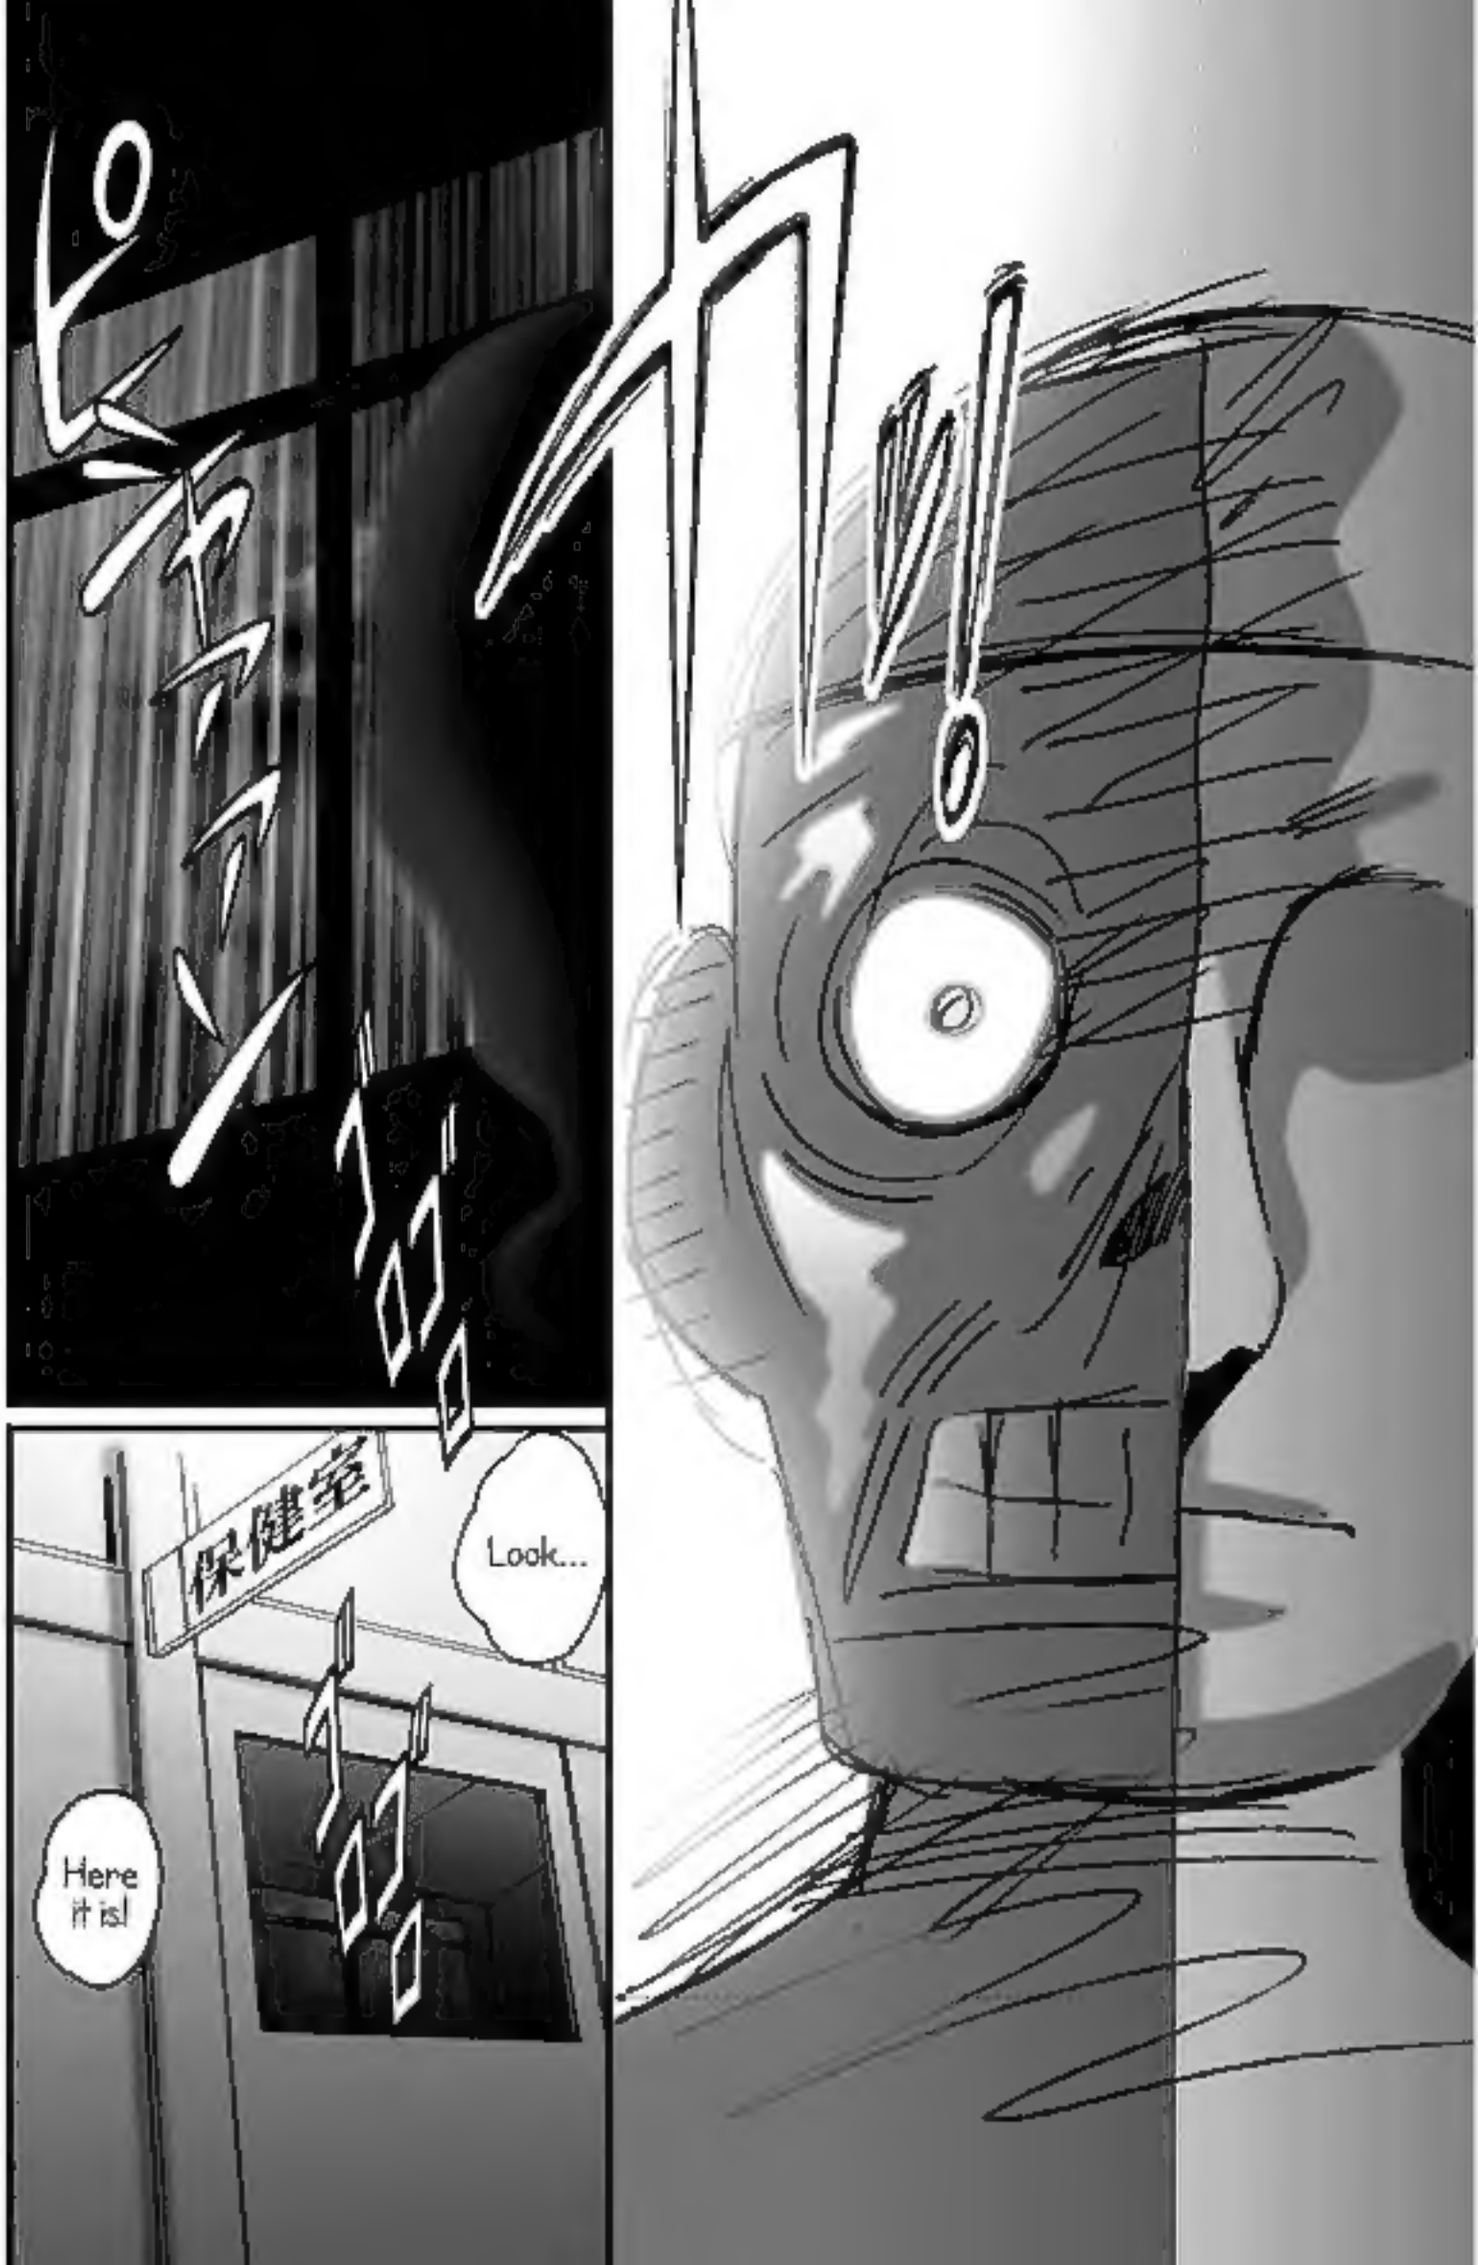
I kinda get it but I don't...
And don't you think it'd need to be later at night for him to show up?
How come you're having so much fun...
I'm scared of the dark too...
ゴロゴロ
But between the rain and the black-out...
...there's kind of a late night atmos-phere!
Can I go home yet...
...?
A...voice?!
C-Could it be the zombie...?!

Doesn't look like we're going home soon, so I was telling my mother
Don't do that now...
Come on, quit scaring me like that...!
Oh, sorry about that. That's my ringtone.
It's so dark, I lost track of where we are.
What?!
Um,
Eek!
...
You too, Kagura-zaka-senpai? What's wrong?
Sorry.

Y-You mean... We're lost?
I'm sorry. I'm not used to walking around the school at night.
It's dark, and now we don't know where we are...
It's gone from bad to worse.
You're real optimistic!
Ugh... Why's it so hard to see...
I guess phone light wasn't good enough after all.
Please stop already!!
Now that I think about it, the fifth mystery was something like...a student walking at night will seem to disappear in the dark and lose their way!
I've gotta look into this!
But you know, a headline like "Students stranded in the middle of a storm!" might work.
Senpai...

Mishima-senpai, you know where you're going?
Yeah, sorta.
I think it's probably this way?
The infirmary.
Club prez's sixth sense is off the charts.
Let's follow her!
Sixth... sense?
Getting even more lost would be bad, wouldn't it...?
It's okay!



保健室
Look...
Here it is!

We really made it.
So we've gotta go inside?
Of course we do.
We came to see if the rumor was true or not.
It'll be nice if it's a scoop, but....
If it's nothing, then we get in trouble and that's the end of it... right?
Senpai! What are you doing saying that now?
Here goes!
ガラッ
Inside's pitch black.
Right? Just like I said.

Hey Mister Zombie!
Huh?
What is it?
H-How is it?
What's inside...
The figure.

Oh... isn't this...
Huh? Was it really there?
The zombie.
Really?
...the science class anatomy model?
Aww,
but listen, the eighth mystery...
...says that the figure was seen moving!
There must be some secret...
That's exactly what it is.
I-It must have walked on its own!
But why is it here...?
That's hard to believe.

It's moving!
Ohh-hhh?!
I'm shocked, it actually moved.
This might work for the front page.
Senpai, not you too...
I don't understand but I'm scared!
It really was a zombie!
The type that became zombified by Trioxine 245!

It'll eat you!!
Run!
Ah, Mishima-senpai!
Hmm?
What's this...
It was vibrating while on do not disturb.
A phone?
Look.
With this stuck inside it,
maybe the vibration caused it to move?
There was a phone in its stomach.

That's my phone! I was looking everywhere for it!
Hey, where are you right now?
Ah! I'm so glad someone finally picked up!
Hello?
What?! W-Why there?
It was stuck in the anatomy model in the infirmary.
Kanzaki-sensei?
Yes, understood.
Anyway, I'm sorry. Can you bring it with you in the morning?
Thank you!
The science room was far away, so I figured I'd return it tomorrow
Ann I borrowed it from science to use in my health lesson, but ..

So. well.
I guess that's what actually happened
It looks like she'd been calling since yesterday. even into the night
The eighth mystery. That's a rumor for you.
But it was interesting. I can use that as news.
Like "The great detectives who exposed a ghost story."
Ah!
The power's back on.
Wow That was scary.

boring.
That's just...
What's the matter? Everything was resolved.
Why don't you show some pride?
I believed in that rumor!
I really wanted to meet a zombie!
Oh, is that so.

So I'm gonna go look for some zombies!!
What do you mean there's still more?
The nineth mystery is actually when, at night, you can witness the zombie ban odori by the school building!

Many days later
Hey, you guys, have you heard of the new seven mysteries here at school?
...that down a certain hallway...
Apparently a teacher saw it while patrolling the school...
...a small creature looked at them with gleaming eyes.
That's... really scary!
I guess there are more than seven mysteries by now
おしまい♡

I've been meaning to ask.
ぼ〜と…
Akari Amari
You all know about this school's. .
seven myst eries, right?
It's nine in the evening at Seiou High.
There is currently a flood warning from exce- ssive rain.

Saya Kagurazaka
Um.
I've heard of them.
Makoto Hiragi
stuck inside.
These four are.
Yurara Mishima
But the power s out and it s scary.
You think?
Please don t talk about that right now!
One, At night in the music room the portrait s eyes will shine.
And two. When no one is there, the piano will play by itself.
Three. A picture of Kinjirou Ninomiya will run around the music room Four If you knock on the music room s door Hanako-san will.
or some thing?
Ah!
I-I don't need details...!!

I've heard of all of those before.
They're not very fresh.
Still scary!
You might be right
The rain's still pouring, huh.
Who knew the rain would get this bad.
We're the only students left
It's impossible now, but I wish I could've gone home.
Well, back to before.
what about those seven mysteries?

Actually, I heard recently that... there's a new eighth one!
8?!
You mean there are rumors like that ?!
Ah now that you mention it
What's it about?
Never heard of that either
Really? Would've thought at least you'd know it, club prez.

Fig-ure...
No! It was the infirm-ary...
There, an ominous figure will come to life.
Music room again?!
In the dead of night... alone in the music room...
Accord-ing to my sour-ces...
It was just some prep for the real deal...
P-Please don't scare me like that...!!
And look how cute it is!
That's my little Living Dead Bun.
Oh, that?
Something's there some-thing's there something's there some-thing's there!!!

The story hasn't changed very much though.
You're right, it doesn't seem like it could fill up an article.
What do you mean!
There are loads of people who've seen this thing up close!
Like how half its body is supposed to crack open, revealing the muscles behind it!
Eek!
That's gotta be a zombie! A zombie!
I think we should totally check it out!
Fulci! Romero! Argento!

Why would there be a zombie in the infirmary?
That's why we're gonna go check.
A zombie, huh...
That's definitely out of the ordinary, so it might make an article.
No way! I'm not going!
Are you all going?
I don't care either way,
but if everyone is going, then I guess I will too.
Fine!! I'll go!
私もぉ～!!
ガーン
Hooray! Guess it's decided.
W-What...

...but now the warning's gone out, and even if we walk, we won't get home.
We were only going to wait here until it calmed down...
You know, it's really raining hard...
I can hardly see...

We haven't left the building so it's fine!
Do you think we'll get in trouble for wandering around?

Why a test of courage now, of all times...
Not a test of courage, an expedition! This is research!
I'm only the ghost club president, of course.
